Jesse Allen Brown, 72, of Vesuvius, died May 1 in a Lexington hospital.

Surviving are his wife, Sophia Clark Brown; four daughters, Mrs. Margaret Pacharies, Reading, Pa., Mrs. Susan Woody, Appomattox, Mrs. Ella Campbell, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Deborah Campbell, Amherst; three sons, Robert Brown, Reading, Pa., Larry Brown, Amherst, and Kenneth Brown, Madison Heights; three sisters, Mrs. Ella Legg, Ravenswood, W.Va., and Mrs. Ruth Hollingworth, both of Lookout, W.Va.; three brothers, Willis Brown and Eugene Brown, both of Lookout, W.Va., and John Bgown, Charleston, W.Va.; and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at Lomax Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Wyatt Mayes. Burial followed in Green Hill Cemetery.

Lomax Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Herbert Strother Jones Sr.

Herbert Strother Jones, Sr., 95, a native of Spout Spring, living at 3053 Edinburgh Place, Virginia Beach, died Tuesday, May 1 in Virginia Beach.

A son of the late Frank Boggs Jones and Nannie Elliott Jones of Spout Spring, he was a retired farmer. He is survived by one son, Herbert Strother Jones, Jr. of Spout Spring; one daughter, Nannie Jones Covington of Virginia Beach; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Graveside services were held May 3 at 11 a.m. in Princess Ann Memorial Park, virginia Beach. Kellam Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

J.A. Synan, Sr.

Bishop Joseph A. Synan, Sr., 79, former general superintendent of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, died April 25 at the John Randolph Nursing Home in Hopewell.

Bishop Synan was active in the 86,000-member denomination for more than 40 years, beginning in 1926 when he was ordained as a Pentecostal Holiness minister. He served as general superintendent from 1960 to 1969, when he retired and was named bishop for life.

A native of Tazewell County, Bishop Synan grew up in West Virginia and Spotsylvania County. After being ordained, he helped organize several churches in the Tidewater area, including First Pentecostal Holiness Church in Portsmouth, Bethel Pentecostal Holiness Church in Pungo, Suffolk Pentecostal Holiness Church, and First Pentecostal Holiness Church and Glen Rock Pentecostal Holiness Church in Norfolk.

In the 1930s, he was pastor of Hopewell Pentecostal Holiness Church for several years.

In 1954, while serving at the Suffolk church, Bishop Synan was named superintendent of the denomination's Eastern Virginia Conference. In 1941, he rose to assistant general superintendent.

Bishop Synan was elected as one of four bishops in the denomination in 1945. He was the only bishop from 1957 to 1969.

While he was bishop, one of the members of his church was evangelist Oral Roberts. Even after Mr. Roberts became a United Methodist, the bishop continued a close relationship with him.

Bishop Synan was instrumental in having the church headquarters built in Memphis, Tenn., in the early 1950s, and later helped lead a drive to move the church offices to Franklin Springs, Ga.

He was an officer in the National Association of Evangelicals and a former president of the Pentecostal Fellowship of North America. In 1961, he was chairman of the Presidium of the World Pentecostal Conference in Jerusalem.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnis Perdue Synan; two daughters, Mrs. Maurine Gminder of Belvidere, N.C., and Mrs. Doris Elliott of Annandale; and five sons, Maurice E. Synan, pastor of Wings of Faith Pentecostal Holiness Church in Richmond, Joseph A. Synan, Jr., of Richmond, Vernon S. Synon of Franklin Springs, Ga., Dr. Vinson Synan, assistant general superintendent of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Oklahoma City, and Ronald Synan of Boca Raton, Fla.

Also, four sisters, Mrs. Annie Brooks of Richmond, Mrs. Ruth Colley of Columbia, and Mrs. Lola Haney and Mrs. Margaret Harding of Fredericksburg; two brothers, John Synan of Roanoke and Dr. L.C. Synan of Chester, a retired superintendent of the Eastern Virginia Conference of the denomination; 18 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A funeral was held Friday, April 27 at Hopewell Pentecostal Holiness Church. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Park in Chester.

Jordan news notes

The regular preaching service will be held at Jordan Baptist Church Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

There will be a program sponsored by Jordan Sunday School May 20 at 7 p.m. at the church.

We are glad to hear Mrs. Austin has returned home from the hospital and is doing fine.

PARTICIPATING IN THE REGIONAL CONFERENCE of Multidisciplinary Teams on Child Abuse and Neglect were, left to right, Gordon Ragland, Regional Welfare Specialist; Betsy Carter, Regional Representative of Governor's Subcommittee on MD Teams; Sue Gibson, Representative of Governor's Advisory Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect and National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse; and Jean Hesson, Chairman of Appomattox MD Team.

Child abuse is discussed

Prevention of child abuse and neglect was the topic of the Spring Regional Conference for Multidisciplinary Teams held on April 24 at the Farmers National Bank in Appomattox.

Attending the conference were representatives from MD Teams within this region. A morning workshop was conducted by Gordon Ragland, Regional Welfare Specialist, followed by lunch at the Heritage Inn. In the afternoon, Sue Gibson, Representative of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect and National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse.

The conference was sponsored by the Governor's Advisory Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect, Subcommittee on MD Teams with coordinating efforts by Jean Hesson, Chairman of Appomattox MD Team, and Betsy Carter, Regional Representative of Governor's Subcommittee on MD Teams. Similar conferences are being conducted this spring throughout Virginia.

The goals of such MD Teams are prevention, detection and treatment of child abuse and neglect. The Appomattox MD Team is asking everyone to help protect our county's children from child abuse and neglect.

"Yes, child abuse and neglect does occur in Appomattox," said Betsy Carter, "and help is available through the Appomattox County Department of Social Services."

Zion Baptist Church news

By SUSIE HUNTER

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

A large crowd turned out for services Sunday at Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Etta Edward and Mrs. Mattie Lawson were ladies' captains for the Spring Rally, and Deacon Frank Johnson and Mrs. Worley Gray were men's captains for the rally. The rally was a success and raised much money for the building fund.

Mrs. Dorothy Craner was baptized and became a member of the church.

The Rev. Charles Lewis preached a challenging message. The senior choir rendered beautiful music, and Dwight Walker and his singers sang two selections.

You are cordially invited to attend Mother's Day services Sunday at 11 a.m. Bible and prayer services are held each Thursday night at 7 p.m.

Included on our sick list are Deacon Robert Jennings, Mrs. Annie Mae Durphy, and Mr. Andrew Mack.

We continue to pray for the sick and the shut-in everywhere.

Mt. Shiloh Church news

Everyone is invited to attend regular morning worship service at the Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church on May 13 at 11 a.m. The Rev. Gary Moore is the pastor.

Prayer service will be held Friday evening at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend.

The young adults will have a business meeting on Thursday at 5:15 p.m. Please try to attend this meeting.

The Appomattox Chapter of the NAACP will meet at the Gravel Hill Baptist Church, Hixburg, on Monday night, May 14 at 7:30.

Remember to pray for the sick and shut-in.

Jane Walker Byrd honored in Richmond

Mrs. Jane Walker Byrd of Pamplin, now residing in Richmond, was recently nominated by one of her employees to receive the "Boss of the Year Award."

Mrs. Byrd has been employed with the Disability Determination Services, an agency within the Department of Rehabilitative Services for 15 years. She held several positions within the agency prior to becoming procedures supervisor in 1981.

Mrs. Byrd's responsibilities include providing orientation and training programs, evaluating work performance, and analyzing existing clerical procedures in terms of effectiveness and ability to handle anticipated changes. Additional duties include resolving day-to-day problems, answering the more complex procedural questions and assisting the regional director in preparing the agency's budget.

Mrs. Byrd, through her initistive in seeing that the work flows smoothly, has the respect of her employees and gives them inspiration to excel at their duties. Over the past two years her office has changed to a computer system operation under Mrs. Byrd's supervision and her motivation during the initial state helped the personnel to adjust readily to the new system.

She is consistent in handling personnel problems and is available to her employees if they have a problem, personal or office related.

Mrs. Byrd is commended for her ability to effectively counsel and supervise her present staff of twenty-one employees. It should also be noted that Mrs. Byrd is held in high esteem by the other supervisors within the agency.

Minimum competency

Test results released

The results of the Virginia Minimum Competency Testing Program were recently returned to the sophomore class of Appomattox County High School. These tests were administered statewide in February, 1984. Appomattox County test results indicate that 172 tenth-grade students in the regular school program participated in the Minimum Competency Testing Program. Of these students, 96.5% passed the reading test and 97.7% passed the math test.

The State Board of Education has included the minimum competencies as a second requirement of graduation. In addition to the units specified for graduation, an accredited school shall require as a condition of graduation that students demonstrate mastery of minimum competency in the areas of reading and mathematics on tests prescribed by the State Board of Education. These reading and math tests are administered annually to tenth grade students. Also, juniors and seniors who have not passed the tests are provided opportunities for additional administrations.

The Guidance Department of Appomattox County High School coordinates this testing program. Parents and individuals desiring information should contact the ACHS Guidance Counselors (352-7146).
